

Alaska Used Car Buyer's Paperwork Checklist

Use this checklist to prepare for buying a used vehicle from a private seller in Alaska. Confirm the latest requirements with the Alaska Division of Motor Vehicles before completing your transaction.

KEY FACTS

State	Alaska
Agency	Alaska Division of Motor Vehicles
Process	See official source
Notary required	No
Bill of sale	No
Odometer disclosure	Yes
Filing deadline	30 days
Last reviewed	May 13, 2026

QUICK REFERENCE

NOTARY No	BILL OF SALE No	ODOMETER Yes	INSPECTION No
---------------------	---------------------------	------------------------	-------------------------

IMPORTANT DEADLINES

Within 30 days

Buyer must transfer title into their name within 30 days of purchase. A $25 late penalty applies after 30 days.

PRINTABLE CHECKLIST

Buyer checklist

- ☐ Signed title from seller REQUIRED
The seller must have signed the title over to you. Check that the odometer reading is noted.
- ☐ Bill of sale RECOMMENDED
Proof of purchase with VIN, price, and both parties' information.
- ☐ Government-issued photo ID REQUIRED
Required when submitting title transfer paperwork.
- ☐ Payment for title transfer fees REQUIRED
Fees vary by state. Check your state's official DMV fee schedule.
- ☐ Proof of insurance REQUIRED
Most states require proof of minimum liability insurance before issuing plates.
- ☐ Sales tax payment CONDITIONAL
Sales or use tax is typically due when registering the vehicle. Rate and basis vary by state.

Required forms

- ☐ Signed title from seller REQUIRED
The seller must sign the title over to you. Verify the VIN and odometer reading.
- ☐ Title transfer application REQUIRED
Form required to apply for a new title in your name. Requirements vary by state.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

Notary: No — Notarization is not required for a standard private-party title assignment in Alaska; it is only required for a Power of Attorney or Affidavit of Ownership.

Bill of sale: No — A bill of sale is not valid for ownership transfer in Alaska; the signed title is the required document. A bill of sale is recommended as a supplementary record.

Odometer disclosure: Yes — Required by federal law for vehicles under 10 years old.

Inspection: No — Alaska has no statewide emissions or safety inspection requirement for private sales; emissions testing in Anchorage is a buyer responsibility at registration.

STEP-BY-STEP PROCESS

- 1 Run a vehicle history report (e.g., CARFAX or NMVTIS) before purchase.
- 2 Verify the seller's name matches the name on the title.
- 3 Ensure the title is free of liens or confirm the lien will be resolved.
- 4 Have the seller sign the title over to you and complete odometer disclosure.
- 5 Obtain a bill of sale from the seller.
- 6 Submit the signed title, application, fees, and proof of insurance to your state DMV.
- 7 Pay any applicable sales tax.

COMMON MISTAKES

- Not verifying that the seller is the titled owner.
- Failing to check for outstanding liens before purchase.
- Missing the deadline to register the vehicle after purchase.
- Not getting a bill of sale.

OFFICIAL SOURCES

Alaska DMV — Vehicle Titles

<https://dmv.alaska.gov/vehicle-services/titles/>

Alaska Division of Motor Vehicles

<https://dmv.alaska.gov>