Required checklist

- ☐ Out-of-state title (properly assigned to you, if purchased) REQUIRED
The existing title from the other state. If you purchased the vehicle, it must be signed over to you.
- ☐ Government-issued photo ID (current New Mexico address) REQUIRED
Most states require proof of residency to register a vehicle.
- ☐ Proof of New Mexico address REQUIRED
Utility bill, lease agreement, or other proof of current residency.
- ☐ Proof of insurance meeting New Mexico minimum requirements REQUIRED
Insurance from an insurer licensed in New Mexico.
- ☐ Odometer disclosure statement CONDITIONAL
Required if the vehicle is under 10 years old.
- ☐ VIN verification (may be required) CONDITIONAL
Some states require a physical VIN inspection by law enforcement or a DMV inspector.
- ☐ Safety and/or emissions inspection (if required) CONDITIONAL
Check whether your state requires an inspection before registration.
- ☐ Payment for title and registration fees REQUIRED

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

Inspection: Not specified — Inspection requirements vary by state. Check with the official state agency.

STEP-BY-STEP PROCESS

- 1 Establish residency in New Mexico (get a local address if you haven't).
- 2 Obtain the out-of-state title (properly assigned to you, if purchased).
- 3 Check whether New Mexico requires a VIN verification or safety/emissions inspection.
- 4 Complete any required inspections.
- 5 Submit the title, application, ID, proof of insurance, and fees to the state motor vehicle agency.
- 6 Surrender the out-of-state plates if required.
- 7 Receive your new New Mexico title and registration.

COMMON MISTAKES

- Not completing a required inspection before going to the DMV.
 - Forgetting to update your driver's license to the new state (usually required within 30–60 days of moving).
 - Paying out-of-state registration while also owing taxes in the new state.
 - Bringing an incomplete title (missing buyer signature, odometer reading, etc.).
